We're Happy
Wall St. Nervous? Why?

JAMES MACDONALD, former British prime minister, says "relations between the United States and Great Britain are becoming increasingly happy." Not on THIS side of the water. We are happy, although rather foolish with our peace pacts and other poor substitutes for airplanes, submarines and cruisers.

According to Prof. Scott Weaver, writing for "Masses," Great Britain in 1924 produced 4,600,000 tons of pig iron, while this country in that year produced only two million tons. In 1925 Great Britain produced only 8,000,000 tons, as against 10,000,000 tons in 1924. Whereas the United States in 1925 produced 10,000,000 tons. In other words, Britain in 1925 produced exactly the amount produced 10 years earlier. This country in 1925 produced almost 38 times as much pig iron as in 1915.

In 1924 Great Britain produced 112 million tons of coal, as against 47 million tons in the United States. In 1925 Great Britain produced 247 million tons of coal. In 1925 this country produced 825 million tons.

That's part of the trouble with our British friends, but they should blame, not their Uncle Sam, but something or somebody nearer home.

Wall Street was nervous for a while yesterday, didn't quite know why. Afraid of "dear money," perhaps.

But England is shipping gold to us and more is expected. Steel has gone to the highest price ever, and promises to go higher.

Copper is selling for 17 cents a pound, and Uncle Sam has the paper. We ought to be happy, not frightened.

But nervous prosperity is the worst kind of nervousness.

Mr. Sloan, head of General Motors, looks forward to regular annual production of $300,000,000, a "real" reasonable estimate.

With more than 30,000,000 cars running, 4,000,000 new cars will be needed merely to replace worn-out ones.

The world of science, including Bertrand Russell, called the present living mathematician, is interested in Prof. Einstein's announcement that electro-magnetism and gravity are practically the same. This discovery, says the learned Dr. Pagan of Columbia University, places Einstein beside Galileo and Newton.

All interested in physics await a demonstration that there is only one kind of force in the universe, that light, heat, motion, electro-magnetism, gravity are all the same. Einstein seems to confirm part of Herbert Spencer's definition of evolution "which describes the 'retained motion' as undergoing a transformation from an indefinite, incoherent homogeneity to a definite, coherent heterogeneity."

More interesting to practical publishers is the fact that the big Woolworth advertising campaign amounting to $5,000,000 the first year. Abandoning the theory that selecting the right location makes advertising unnecessary, proves the wisdom of Woolworth's president, Mr. H. T. Paxon.

Get the best position for your store by all means. But get also the best position, and the best copy, for your advertising in a newspaper.

Have what the people want, then let the people know you have it. That's the secret of success.

Bootleggers plying their trade between Canada and Detroit had a happy day on the ice. The Detroit river was entirely frozen over in some places, almost entirely frozen over in others, ice six inches thick.

Old-fashioned sleds, toboggans, sleighs were taken out, loaded with liquid refreshments containing more than half of one percent alcohol, and whisked over the ice. On the United States side of the frozen river large furniture was being waiting.

When water turns to ice and helps the whiskey trade, it's discouraging.

Many respectable visitors from Europe, misinterpreted in New York, beginning with strong cocktails, going on through champagne to brandy, say they find it hard to believe that we have a prohibition law.

Lord Rothermere, who owns many British newspapers, says labor will return to power and select a prime minister at the King's speech at the next election. British labor, he says, will revise the treaty signed at Versailles.

Lord Rothermere may be mistaken, but probably he is.

RESCUE 2 FIRE AT WALTHAM

Two half-clothed women, trapped on a second floor balcony, today as firemen battled a blaze in a two-family dwelling in Brown St., Waltham.

Three other adult occupants of the house were forced to flee in their nightclothes. Little 10-year-old Mary, 5, was delivered to the street by her mother, John D. Alphonso, tenant of the downstairs apartment in the burning building.

The women rescued were, Mrs. Thomas C. Pasho and Miss Minnie Rosenthal, both middle-aged, co-owners of the house. They live in the upstairs suite.

The fire was discovered by Lieutenant who was called by smoke. He aroused his wife, carried his daughter in safety, then rushed upstairs to warn the women there.

E. W. Willey, 60, a roomer in the second floor apartment, was the one who made his way unassisted to the street. Mrs. Pasho and Miss Rosenthal, however, found themselves cut off by smoke which was rising up the staircase. Flames were also beginning to break through the cellar to the first floor.

The women pulled wraps over their nightgowns and took refuge on a small balcony overhanging the street. There they perched precariously until the first fire apparatus arrived.

Leaders were hastily erected and the women were taken to the street by J. Arthur Leitch, driver, Arvid Backman, and Landerman Carl Jackson of Ladder 2.

Washington, Jan. 25—Oscar W. Underwood, former United States Senator from Alabama and candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1924, died at his Woodland estate in Virginia.

Mr. Underwood suffered a cerebral hemorrhage early in December, and later was stricken by paralysis.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bertha Woodward Underwood, and two sons, Oscar Underwood, Jr. of Washington, and John Lewis Underwood of Birmingham.

One of the towering figures in Congress during his day, Oscar W. Underwood attained national prominence through unusual politics.

R. I. HEAD DRY RAIDER SEIZED AS 'HIJACKER'

Newport, R. I., Jan. 25 (AP)—Alvin Karpis returned last Monday and the indictment was revealed by the federal officer for Rhode Island, was arrested today, charged with conspiracy to steal.

Richardson pleaded not guilty to the charge and his case was continuing for two weeks for trial. He was released in $5000 guaranteed bail.

The federal agent's alleged activities with his partner, Harry Campbell, in the case of the State House and hotel of about six months, it is understood.

It is alleged to have conspired with the hijackers to steal liquor from the Caracas brothers of Portsmouth last June.

LOVE WON IN LIVELY BOUT WITH 'KID' WEDGE

"Kid" Wedge, who fought life with unusual courage and won, in his boxing bout today with a California divorcee after the toughest battle of his spectacular career. According to the two-fisted boxer.

Harvard student-evangelist, he loved himself in a room, fought his first bout with his conscience and the rules of his church, and stepped forth to lead Mrs. Jennie M. Holloway to the altar in Berkeley, Cal.

The club remembers Wedge as the man who rode here in a box from New York City, and the prize ring, gained admittance to the walls of learning at Harvard and later appeared in the West as a full-fledged Presbyterian minister and friend of the laboring classes.

Dr. Frederick R. Wedge he now is, but his marriage with Mrs. Holloway, which took place last night, was revealed today, means resignation from his church and a few hours before the marriage place. Turn to Page 3, Column 4.

40 TAKEN OFF AT MIDNIGHT; N. Y. BOATMAN'S FIRED HERO

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—Plans were formed today for a welcome to Capt. George Fried and his crew of the liner America in keeping with their heroic rescue of 32 men from the sinking battleship Florida.

The America with the survivors aboard is due to reach her berth at Pier 4 Hoboken, some time tomorrow afternoon.

Asked his expressed distaste of public demonstrations, it was apparent today that although the American will not permit Capt. Fried to shine the limelight, his will around him a civic welcome similar to that given three years ago when he rescued the crew of the British freighter Antiope.

WARNER, INNES CHECK UP ON SUNDAY SPORTS

For the second time since the men with an arrangement made at the initial conference. Warner explained today that he called Innes in for an interview to check up on certain aspects of the case.

The possibility of big league ball players in Rhode Island says, however than many fans think, that the Rhode Island state prison is a place of development today.

Warner said today that since his last interview with Innes, which took place at some undisclosed place outside the State House, he had received a letter from the Park Ave. 10 P. M. leader.

This letter was written in secret.

CHRISTNER RELIES ON SMASH TOK. O. SHARKEY

By JACK CONWAY

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—O. Christner, from the first rank of Alton, Ill., fought at Park Time and in to knock Jack Sharkey right out of the heavyweight prize ring when they clash in a ten-round fight at Madison Square Garden, tonight.

Christner, 35 years of age and a sprinter, has a background of only two years of boxing, believes that his famous right hand man will send Innes down to defeat. This is the punch that knocked Sharkey fifteen unconscious for 40 minutes.

There is tremendous interest in Rhode Island state prison.

RHODE ISLAND SLAYER OF DOCTOR FOUND INSANE

Providence, Jan. 25 (AP)—Frank Weeder, former inmate of the Rhode Island state hospital, who shot and killed Dr. Ransom H. Sartwell, superintendent, today was found not guilty of murder by reason of insanity. Weeder, who had escaped 15 times, was committed to the ward for criminal insane at the Rhode Island state prison.

SPLENDOR AND POMP FOR N. Y. SOCIETY

New York, Jan. 23 (AP)—The pomp and splendor that trailed Napoleon in his meteoric rise to world empire will scintillate once more this evening.

The Texas Arts Ball, million-dollar society spectacle and crowning climax of a gay season, will convert the Hotel Astor for one night into an authentic reproduction of the days of the little emperor.

For nearly a year artists have been preparing material for the ball, which each year depicts a phase of French history and this year will cover the period from 1785 to 1812.

Five hundred persons, each of whom has been at great pains to select his or her costume, will take part in a pageant, devised by Philip A. Cusack and Ben A. Hagen and entitled "Napoleon." Mr. Cusack will impersonate the emperor, and Miss Ethel Barrymore, Josephine. Miss Barrymore will wear a superb coronation gown of cran-colored satin over which will fall a long train of sea chiton velvet lined with gold and covered with gold embroidery, with Napoleon crest. She will have a coronet of emeralds and diamonds.

'TRY IT BY AIR' PLEA OF HUB BUSINESS MEN

YES, IT'S HER PET ANIMAL

Miss Rose Miles is welcome to her choice of associates and companions, of course. Today she took for a stroll in Huntington ave., a pretty black-and-white-striped participant in the Sportsmen's Show at Mechanic building. Her companion was a polecat—which is no more unpopular generally by any other name when suddenly confronted and frightened out in the fields.

HOLDUP! WHY, JOE WAS TAKING HIS WAGES

Joe Ward, 33, of Hubert st., Rosbury, is as mild a man as ever beat a rug or washed a window—so long as he gets his pay for that rug beating and window washing.

Today, Joe thought Mrs. Bertha Berman, his employer of the moment, was holding out on him, so he stamped out of the kitchen of Mrs. Berman's Wilcox st., Dorchester, home with an aluminum teakettle, full of hot water, an aluminum coffee pot, full of coffee, and a double boiler, boiling, all under his arm as security for "back wages."

OUT! ROBBERS!

Joe's exit was not unattended by commotion, and excited neighbors telephoned the police that a hold-up was in progress.

While Mrs. Berman waited over her denuded stove and while Joe juggling his steaming load, sped bareheaded toward the horizon, the Martin st., Dorchester, police station was turning out in force.

The patrol wagon, the station house plover and a motorcycle and side car, all carrying armed officers, roared off to do battle with the supposed gunner.

HE WAS SWIFT, TOO.

At Mrs. Berman's, the rescue squad learned only that the alleged miscreant—singular now, not plural—was gone.

"Hiding in a cellar on Estelle st.," said somebody.

So Estelle st. proceeded the forces of law and order.

"Your man's running away up Blue Hill ave.," was the breathless word here.

The patrol wagon, the flivver and the side car took the corner to Blue Hill ave. on two wheels.

Strong enough, there was Joe, still going strong, with the aroma of

RUTH ADAMS IN COURT PLEA FOR SUPPORT

New Bedford, Jan. 23 (AP)—Mrs. Ruth Adams, named in the divorce battle between Dr. Emory C. Bliss of Boston and his Newton wife, was in district court here today to press a complaint against her husband, Clarence Adams, of Westport.

Mrs. Adams charged her husband with neglect of two minor children. She maintained he was more than $200 in arrears in payments of $15 a week which he was obliged by previous court order to make.

Adams, a 25-year-old farmer, pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to four months in jail. He appeared and was released in bail of $200 and directed to resume the $15 weekly payments at once.

Mrs. Adams, in court, was attired in the same fur coat and becoming garments which she wore at the Bliss trial. Her appearance contrasted sharply with that of her former husband, who showed no signs of prosperity. Mrs. Adams gave her address as Warwick, R. I. She has been separated from Adams for about four years, her complaint set forth.

Off on Great Adventure! It's a Sad Tale, Boys!

Eddie Powers and Al Burke, 11-year-old Braintree schoolboys who started for somewhere yesterday with a combined capital of 40 cents, were picked up by the police today after they had covered only the first four miles of their journey.

Eddie and Al made a good beginning of their adventure, they figured, when they found an open freight car and climbed in. "Where the freight goes we go," the amateur lightweights of the road remarked, and then didn't care if their destination was San Francisco or Florida.

Lock wasn't with them, though. The freight car stayed in the Braintree yards.

When Ed and Al rubbed it sleep out of their eyes this morning and peered out, all set for brand new horizons, they saw the same old schoolhouse which they had thought would be hundreds of miles away. And then a policeman found them.

AUTON IN REVERE MYSTERY CRASH

Revere police were searching today for occupants believed to be injured in a powerful radiator which early this morning skidded off North Shore rd. near Oak Island, demolished 200 feet of guard rail and plunged in complete wreckage into an eastern embankment.

Blood stains were found at the scene, but the car's driver and possible passengers were missing. Inquiries at hospitals and nearby doctors' offices revealed no clue.

The wrecked machine bore Massachusetts license plates issued to police wad, to John Farfield of Hill at, Charlestown. Official inquiry at that address brought the information that Farfield was absent from home.

Bryan's Son to Marry Divorcee of 8 Years in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, Jan. 25 (AP)—William Jennings Bryan, Jr., son of the late Democratic leader, announced today that he would marry for a second time in this city next Wednesday. In 1920, after a marriage license was granted, he married a woman who was 27 years of age.

Mrs. Ballner was divorced eight years ago. She has a son. Bryan was divorced two years ago and has three daughters. He is a practicing attorney here.

COUGES OUT HIS WIFE'S EYES, KILLS SON

Alton, O., Jan. 25 (INS)—A jealous husband who gouged out the eyes of his beautiful young wife, killed his four-year-old son and wounded his two-year-old daughter by his own hand early today.

Driven to frenzy by jealousy, the husband, George Thomas, 35, a rubber worker, carried out his threat to claw out the eyes of his wife and to kill himself and his children. Thomas and his wife, Robert, aged four, are dead. Thomas, aged two, is expected to die from the bullet wounds in her breast. Mrs. Helen S. Thomas, 24, is expected to remain blind the rest of her life.

Maddened by the knowledge that his wife had been downtown seeking witnesses for a divorce, Thomas, after a violent quarrel, threw her on the floor of their living room, gouged out her eyes with his fingernails and gouged with his thumb.

Hearing his mother's agonized screams, Robert, in an adjoining room, began to cry. The enraged father rushed toward the boy and fired a shot from a pistol, one bullet piercing the boy's heart. The wounded boy crawled from the bedroom into the living room, where he lay under his mother's body.

"I couldn't see him," the mother sobbed. "I heard his crying screams. Then he stopped breathing and I knew my boy was dead."

Standing over the crib in which the baby died, Thomas fired two shots through her left breast, then he walked into the kitchen, drank a glass of poison, returned to the living room and shot himself twice in the stomach. As he lay he laughed and taunted his wife.

"Can you see now? I told you I'd let you live and suffer."

JEWISH FUND IS NOW $540,000

The United Jewish $500,000 campaign for the support of 20 Jewish charitable and social welfare organizations, stood at $540,000 today following a meeting of the leaders and sponsors in the Chatham Club.

The meeting reported $2,000 added to the total, making up to a week ago. Judge A. K. Cohen, Samuel A. Dank, Arthur Stern, Samuel Silverman and others pointed to the considerable increase of the campaign, which is now only $50,000 short of the $600,000 goal.

The meeting also reported the fact that not all the working committee members support the campaign, but in reality the campaign is probably well over the $500,000 mark.

Leon Strauss, chairman of the newly organized "Freezone" committee, who has created what has been called a campaign behind the campaign, presided at the meeting and spoke energetically of the eventual success of the $600,000 effort.

GREATEST YEAR SAYS WHITING

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce William C. Whiting today said that 1928 was the greatest year in the history of the country since the war, and that the year has been a record of the greatest production and trade ever recorded.

Though some branches of industry failed to participate in the general prosperity, he said that the condition of these industries had shown steady improvement, and that "this year marked a continuance of the longest period of general business stability ever witnessed in the United States."

He declared manufacturing production had exceeded the previous high record of 1927; that construction activity of all types had been at the peak and that the volume of business transactions, as reflected in the retail trade, was disclosed by records of mail order houses, department stores and chain business, had been larger than in any previous year.

In regard to agriculture, the secretary cited prices which, except for grain, he said, were higher than previous years. He added that the production of steel reached almost 50,000,000 tons and that the consumption of electricity power likewise was above all previous years.

Child Disobedient, Father Sears Hands and Body

New York, Jan. 25 (INS)—In the children's society shelter in the Bronx, eight-year-old James McDermott is under the care of nurses today, his body and hands cruelly burned.

"He did it," the child said as he sat in the custody of the society.

Walter said his father, Walter McDermott, a chauffeur, heated the blade of a carving knife in the kitchen stove and laid the glowing steel on the younger child's tender flesh.

Moreover, the father admitted the act, according to detectives. "It had to be done," they quote McDermott as saying. "He was disobedient, and had to be punished."

What the child's offense was McDermott did not say, but he will be called upon to explain in court today.

LINK GOVERNOR S. O. OF INDIANA WITH HINDU CEREMONY MADE MILLIONS IN OIL DEAL

Oklahoma City, Jan. 25 (AP)—The cold, searching eye of the State Legislature today rested on ritualism and Hindu philosophy as alleged factors in influencing the regime of Governor Henry S. Johnston, now under suspension and facing impeachment.

Out of the mass of testimony charges, tales of strange Hindu chants and mystic oriental philosophy practiced by those behind the Governor's chair, one bit of practical action stood out, the addition of another charge of impeachment to the seven already voted against the chief executive by the House of Representatives.

This charge dealt with the much discussed pardoning by Johnston of Dewey Crosswhite, a convicted murderer, in December, 1928, while Crosswhite was listed as a fugitive from justice.

WHERE INCENSE BURNED.
Weird tales of an apartment, draped in oriental splendor, where pots of incense burned and James P. Armstrong hummed what "seemed to be a part of a ritual" were dragged from the reluctant lips of H. E. Sullivan, the Governor's secretary, by members of the House committee.

Armstrong is Governor Johnston's political adviser and an uncle of Mrs. O. O. Hennrichs, confidential secretary of the chief executive, and often spoken of as the "Mrs. Colonel House" of the administration.

HINDU CEREMONY
Sullivan, repeatedly interrupting his testimony with spirited protests, said he had gone to Armstrong's home at the request of the Governor to get Armstrong's opinion on a legislative bill. Under threat of being jailed for contempt, Sullivan testified that Armstrong "had five or six pots of incense. He was lighting them when I came into his bedroom."
"Was he humming a religious song?" Chairman Reed asked.
"Was that chanting of whatever you call it such as to make you believe it was a part of some religious ceremony, or ritual, or Hinduism?"
"It seemed to be," he responded. Sullivan said Armstrong's room was a "nice bedroom."
"How did it differ from other rooms?"
"It was dressed up in some kind of yellow goods."
"Would you say oriental splendor?"
"Well, I'd say so," Sullivan replied.

Tex Gulnan's Brother Convicted by Jury

New York, Jan. 25 (INS)—Tony Gulnan, brother of "Tex" Gulnan, and proprietor of the night club, Ches Florence, was found guilty of maintaining a nuisance in that place by a federal jury today.

Gulnan's club was among those raided by federal agents in Mable Wilbrandt's campaign to dry up roadway. Charges of conspiracy and other violations of the liquor laws had been reduced to main taining a nuisance.

Today, in the next session of the court, the jury will find scores of other persons for probable conviction.

'U. S. IS SO BIG I'M AFRAID!' SAYS PRINCE

Springfield, Jan. 25.—"What do you think of America?"

"It is so big I'm afraid!"

Thus Mr. Cyril Sokolski, as a head hotel register, named him—though at home in Bulgaria he is Prince Cyril brother of the U. S. A. today.

He regretted that he would be unable to visit Boston on his tour and be surrendered to an urge to get back to New York, for inspecting the big plant of the Fiat Rubber Company at Chicopee Falls he took a train for the metropolis instead of staying over, as was planned, to see the local Bolls-Hugger factory tomorrow.

"I want to see it," said Cyril, "before I go into the South and West," he said. "I am highly honored by the splendid reception accorded me wherever I have gone. This country is so big and grand I cannot realize it."

DEATH TAKES NOTED ARTIST

Mrs. Lucy Dodd Hamberg, Wellesley graduate and noted artist who has painted the portraits of many prominent Boston residents, is dead in her villa at Florence, Italy, according to a cable dispatch today. She had been living abroad many years.

She was 52 years old, a native of Portland, Ore. She studied under several well-known European artists and had exhibited at many international exhibitions. For the last three years she had directed an art school in Florence. Her husband, who died during the war, was also a widely-known artist and she leaves two sons, Walter and Edward Hamberg, and a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hamberg.

Divorce Suit Stirs Society Hunting Set

Bridgewater, Ct., Jan. 25 (INS)—"Puff-bled" Country's fashionable hunting set was shaken today when Donald G. Perkins, a son-in-law of one of the first families, filed suit in Superior Court for divorce from Elaine Galloway Boyd Perkins.

Perkins accuses his wife of habitual intemperance and asks for custody of their three children. "It's all a joke," Mrs. Perkins declared, when informed that her husband had begun an action. "I'll file a counter-suit as soon as possible."

Burglar Suspect Arrested on Bus

Edward M. McCarthy, 24, of Fall place, Quincy, was deftly arrested from a Boston-New York bus in Holden early today and arrested there with breaking and entering and larceny from a motor car.

The Quincy man himself a former bus driver on the Boston-New York route, was arrested by State troopers on a description furnished by Quincy police who yesterday arrested a suspected accomplice, Alfred Collins of Madison st., Quincy.

Gets Two Months for Attack on Deaf Mute

An attack on John Bano, deaf mute piano seller of Roxbury, netted Frank R. Gould of Chestnut st., Lynn, two months in the house of correction today when he appeared before Judge Ralph W. Reeve in the Lynn District Court. Gould was also fined $30 on a charge of disorderly conduct. He appealed.

Lost a New Tire? Cheer Up! Honest Man Found It!

Today's honest man—Mey Nadelberg, 50 Washington st., Dorchester, employed in the delivery department of the Boston Evening American.

He picked up a brand new tire, size 367, worth $75, and the owner can have it just by getting in touch with Meyer and identifying his property.

While Nadelberg was driving home last night and saw the needle in the middle of the road. Figuring that some truck driver lost it and might lose his job as a result, he called at the editorial department and appealed to the boys to aid him in locating the owner.

"I know it if it was I who lost it I'd feel kind of tough, so I want to find the owner and give him back his tire," he declared.

Coolidge Asks for $19,730,386

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—President Coolidge has asked Congress to appropriate $19,730,386 for these purposes: Four hundred and fifty thousand dollars for modernizing the battleships Oklahoma and Nevada and conducting two years' work which $13,120,000 already has been authorized; $24,000 for alterations on the battleship California; $70,000 for maintenance of the bureau of yards and docks; $200,000 for engineering; and $17,386,196 for salary increase of Government employees under the Welch act of last session.

CALL FERRARIN 'BEST AVIATOR'

Paris, Jan. 24 (AP)—The title "the best aviator in the world in 1928" was awarded by the International League of Aviators today to the Italian, Col. Arturo Ferrarin.

After breaking the duration record, he flew from Rome to Natal, Brazil, thus setting a new mark for distance.

The choice of Ferrarin for the honor was made by a margin of only two votes over Capt. Charles Kingsford-Smith, commander of the plane "Southern Cross," which flew across the Pacific from Australia to Australia. The 1927 title was awarded to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

This year's trophy for feminine pilots went to Lady Bailey, but a model of honor was given to Lady Heath.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, who commanded the great Zeppelin on its trip from Germany to America, was awarded the light of honor trophy. Selected design of the 1927 award was given to Lieut. Comdr. Charles E. Rosendahl, U. S. N., for his feat in that year with the dirigible Los Angeles.

"First flyer" trophies also were awarded in various countries. Carl B. Elson was named for the United States.

"Will the gentleman who just coughed, kindly step to the box office..for a package of Old Golds?"

"Of course, I have never said just those words from the stage—but in all kindness I have often wanted to offer this friendly help to some poor fellow whose cough was interrupting the show and spoiling the enjoyment of those around him.

"A year or so ago, the makers of OLD GOLD ran some ads on the disturbing effect of coughing in theatres. As an actor, I was grateful for those ads. I am more grateful now that OLD GOLD has invited stage folk to help them bring 'first aid' information to our unhappy friends the 'theatre-coughers.'

"My own advice is that prevention is the first and best aid. The kind of prevention that smoking OLD GOLDS gives. Harsh tobacco irritates the throat, and that causes coughing. Changing to OLD GOLDS soothes the throat and removes the cause of the 'cough tickle.'"

VIOLINIST AGAIN CHARMED WITH BIG PROGRAM

By MOSES SMITH

Henri Temianka, young violinist who made a notable debut here early in the season, gave a second concert at Jordan Hall. The impression that he is a remarkable violinist, one of the "finest" of recent years, was not only renewed; it was strengthened by the fact that he played even better than on the previous occasion.

The violinist chose an unexpected program which looked better on paper, as a matter of fact, than it actually sounded. But if it differed nothing else of importance, we are indebted to him for the opportunity of hearing Faure's sonata for piano and violin, Opus 11. With the able assistance of Harry Kaufman, at the piano, he gave a beautiful performance of this fine work. Faure is master of music of the flowing line, and as such Temianka played the sonata like it is music of great breadth. The one serious criticism is that the four movements do not offer sufficient contrast in mood.

The other principal piece was a nocturne and "Tarentella" by the Polish composer, Szymanowski. This composition presented striking originality in treatment as well as in melodic idiom, but the ideas it contained were essentially second-hand. It offered the performer ample opportunity for display of a varied technical equipment and Temianka was not wanting in any particular. Especially commendable were the unusually pure harmonies.

Florence Vidor Film Star, Speeds to Side of Injured Daughter

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—Florence Vidor, film star, 37, of Hollywood, Cal., today after receiving word that her 10-year-old daughter, Suzanne, had been injured in an automobile accident.

Mrs. Vidor recently was married to Jascha Heifetz, concert violinist. He did not make the trip with her.

Suzanne is a daughter of Miss Vidor and John Vidor, film star, who were divorced some four years ago.

DOOR BOOMS FOREX-KAISER'S NATAL FETE

Doorn, Holland Jan. 25 (AP)—Thrifty Dutch tradesmen are rubbing their eyes over the unexpected volume of business in connection with the twentieth anniversary of former Kaiser Wilhelm's birth.

One enterprising cigar store had special cigars prepared with a picture of Wilhelm as he looked 20 years ago, who is said to be bald and only a moustache. The bands on the cigars display the Prussian coat of arms.

"You can't buy a Kaiser cigar anywhere else," the proprietor admonished each stranger dropping into the shop. "Certainly not in Germany, but also not anywhere else in Holland."

For the first time in many years the barber of Doorn expects to keep his shop open on Sunday to shave the greatest collection of blonds that ever submitted to his razor. Books from the pen of Wilhelm or those favorable to him are being displayed for sale.

Two local tailors are working overtime pressing the uniforms and evening clothes of the princely arrivals. On Doorn estate, electric lights are being installed, lighter along the narrow canal surrounding the castle proper and also on the castle itself and the bell of the little chapel.

Three of Doorn's pastry bakers have been awarded the biggest order they ever had to supply cakes, pastries, cookies and other delicacies. Another baker has an exhibition of huge round layer of cake with the coat of arms of the Hohenzollerns and Imperial Prussia in color against a background of white frosting. This cake he will present to Wilhelm on Sunday.

Gen. Ludendorff wants the Ex-Kaiser Back in Germany. Berlin, Jan. 25 (UNB)—Gen. Erich Ludendorff, one of Germany's foremost military leaders in the great war, today demanded the return of the ex-Kaiser to Germany.

Gen. Ludendorff proposed that the former Emperor live in quiet retirement.

Gen. Ludendorff was quartermaster-general of the German army and chief of staff to Field Marshal von Hindenburg in war.

The "element" was contained in an article that covered the entire front page of the weekly publication, Deutsche Wochenschau. It proposed that the former Kaiser be invited to return from exile in Holland, where "he is really a prisoner, a foreign power." This declaration, Ludendorff declared, is in the name of German honor and decency.

MORE BONES OF SKEETON ARE SOUGHT

Nashua, N. H., Jan. 25—While workmen at the old Union block continued to search today for more bones of a girl, Police Chief Irving F. Goodwin was contemplating, as a last resort, sending the skeleton parts already found to State Pathologist Charles Jackson for examination.

Work of razing the building was renewed, but the workmen were given orders to watch carefully for skeleton parts, and a policeman was placed on duty to assume charge in case anything bearing on the mystery was found.

Chief Goodwin is now primarily interested in ascertaining how long the bones have lain hidden away as he has come to realize that, if the mystery is many years old, as supposed, there is little likelihood of a solution.

The mystery was deepened when Mrs. Jennie Menter Anderson, Worcester, arrived here and declared the photograph which was found beside the bones, originally discovered last Saturday, was a picture of her sister, Mrs. Blanche Menter Blackman. This had been denied by others, but had been denied by Mrs. Blackman's former husband, who is still alive, however, that Mrs. Blackman is alive.

Hoover's Cousin Hurt

The men who had no bank account and no money to save, and whose name of common sense could 300 not be found in the country, said they could save enough for their old age, but they would not do so until they had reached the fountain of youth.

Truth is that it is becoming harder and harder for men and women of energy to find enough willing to engage them at any wage.

The first involvement of wit, as Mr. Ford points out, is rich in irony. The second is the irony that every man and woman who is not at present resigned to the temptation of the stock market is a fool.

HOOVER OFF TO CATCH PRIZE GAME-FISH

Miami Beach, Jan. 25.—President-elect and Mrs. Hoover were aboard the Jollychik Mitchell houseboat today, leaving behind offshore races and others, and also with the excitement deeply impressed on the public's mind that Hoover is generally unpledged in the choice of diversions for his cabinet.

The President-elect's major ambition now is to land a snail's-foot fish. That is what he wants to hook, the prize game fish of the Florida coast.

If he can land such a catch Hoover will be mighty proud. It is apparent from the way he is looking for it that he is a real sportsman.

Twilight. The first States conference to Miami had a two-hour conference with Hoover, the last before the latter sailed away to the southward.

After his talk, Hoover was just as much in the dark as to his chances as any other candidate. Although he is one from Nevada, he is expected to make the matter of a visit to the District of Columbia a real matter, and a matter of a visit to Washington and New York is expected to return to his post in Nevada City.

Hoover is familiar with the fact that Morrow would like the premier place as Secretary of State under the new administration as a recognition of his services in Mexico.

EVASION QUESTION

Lakeview Morrow is excellently acquainted with the idea that Hoover would be a poor choice.

While it is true that he still has a job to do in the States, he is expected to make the matter of a visit to the District of Columbia a real matter, and a matter of a visit to Washington and New York is expected to return to his post in Nevada City.

Also, he would not be a poor choice for the States. He is expected to make the matter of a visit to the District of Columbia a real matter, and a matter of a visit to Washington and New York is expected to return to his post in Nevada City.

The Crime in the Crypt

Six-Day Novel by a Famous Author

Mottram Oakley, a young American touring England, discovers a fellow American lying murdered in a sarcophagus in a cathedral crypt. He is very anxious to solve the crime and picks up some whitish-yellow grains near the coffin. He then calls on John Clevedon, whom he had met on the boat and who he knew is interested in detective stories. Clevedon, however, has seriously injured his hand and his doctor forbids him to talk about the murder case.

The mystery remains unsolved and Oakley becomes Clevedon's private secretary and accompanies him to America. They have been settled only a short time in Clevedon's political home when his mother's personal maid is found shot to death in a hammock in the rose arbor. This crime, too, never is solved.

Vera L. Hall, Clevedon's fiancée, accuses Oakley's heart and rather surprises him by asking him all sorts of intimate questions regarding his connection with Clevedon.

During a house party, Mrs. Clevedon is found murdered lying in a treasure chest. The members of the house party are determined to find what brother of Satan is among them.

CHAPTER 2

It was a cold, clear day in the heart of the English winter. The sun shone brightly from a cloudless sky, and the birds sang merrily in the trees. In a small, cozy room in a London house, a young man sat at a table, writing. He was Mottram Oakley, an American who had just arrived in England. He was looking at a small, whitish-yellow grain that he had picked up near a coffin in a cathedral crypt. He was very anxious to solve the crime and had picked up some more grains. He then called on John Clevedon, whom he had met on the boat and who he knew is interested in detective stories. Clevedon, however, has seriously injured his hand and his doctor forbids him to talk about the murder case.

Three Coat Rules for Junior Chic

Junior chic is all about style and fashion. It is about looking like a grown-up without losing your youthful charm. One of the key pieces of clothing for junior chic is the coat. There are three main rules for choosing a coat: 1. It should be stylish and fashionable. 2. It should be comfortable and easy to wear. 3. It should be suitable for the weather. By following these three rules, you can find the perfect coat for your junior chic style.

Dr. Bischoff's Health Hint
AMONG the diseases of which the causes have not yet been discovered are measles, mumps, chickenpox, smallpox, trachoma and cancer. The way, therefore, to fight such enemies of man is to keep the body at highest efficiency.

Bischoff on Tuberculosis

By L. E. Bischoff, M. D., Ph. D.
Famous Authority on Health and Psychology.

TUBERCULOSIS is not the disease it is usually thought to be. It is not a disease of the lungs, but a disease of the body. It is a disease that can be prevented and cured. The key to preventing and curing tuberculosis is to keep the body at the highest efficiency. This can be done by following a few simple rules: 1. Eat a healthy diet. 2. Exercise regularly. 3. Get plenty of rest. 4. Avoid stress and worry. By following these rules, you can keep your body healthy and strong, and you can prevent and cure tuberculosis.

About Hats

Hats are an important part of a woman's wardrobe. They can make or break an outfit. When choosing a hat, there are a few things to keep in mind: 1. The hat should be suitable for the occasion. 2. The hat should be comfortable to wear. 3. The hat should be in style. By following these guidelines, you can choose the perfect hat for any occasion.

It Is Such a Nice Plan

How Much Will It Cost Uncle Sam?

This country consents to American experts assisting Europe to adjust the reparations question. Their job will be to settle the lump sum that Germany can and MUST pay, instead of paying the Allies $600,000,000 gold, per year indefinitely.

All children over twelve should know that the European plan is to have Germany issue bonds for her war debt and then persuade the country to buy the bonds.

If another war broke out, as big as the last, the bonds would be repudiated, OF NECESSITY, but by that time the Allies would have the money.

You read that IF, with the help of Americans, "an acceptable reparations plan could be devised, that would be the way for Paris approval of a compact with us."

In other words, if we arrange to pay Germany's full debt to the Allies, they will hand part of it back to us, PER-HAPS.

As Nature Made Them

And a Little Bit More

FASHIONABLE BATHERS ON BEACH IN FRANCE

In that immortal work, "Don Quixote," Sancho Panza, the fat, faithful servant of the knight, says, "We are all as God made us, and sometimes worse."

This picture reminds you of that. From crinoline skirts down to the ankles, ruffles around their neck, women and men of our age have come to this.

This picture, taken on the shore of the Mediterranean at Antibes, in France, shows well-known ladies and gentlemen of our period enjoying themselves.

If the big African game from the Gaboon region could come to Antibes and see this, especially if the big gorilla of the Gaboon could come and see this group of their highly advanced human cousins, they might well say, "Well, after all, there isn't so MUCH difference."

Arms and legs, chest and shoulders, as much as possible UNCOVERED, that is the rule of today.

But who has a right to criticize? Not an old-fashioned editor, certainly.

If these ladies and gentlemen and those that look on believe that their legs and arms are a pleasure to look at, then, why not SHOW them?

There are some who think that something should be kept in reserve, and that, in the language of the old lady mentioned by Montaigne, a wife should "take off her modesty only with her petticoat," but not take off her petticoat in mixed company.

However, all that is OLD stuff.

This is the NEW stuff, and if you don't like it, you need not go to Antibes.

Better Mixed

One Kind of Thought Is Too Few

Senator Jones of Washington wants prohibition investigated by "a Senate committee composed exclusively of the friends of prohibition."

That's the Russian fashion. When you go to Russia you are steered and manipulated "exclusively by friends of bolshevism." You don't learn much about Russia. A mixed committee would be better.

Why Not Laugh?

That sturdiest of crusaders for art, that knight in green armor riding a tilt for beauty, Miss Harriet Monroe's "Poetry: A Magazine of Verse," contains in its current issue an editorial entitled "Why Not Laugh?"

Why not, says the editor, "laugh at one's own important little cause, as one measures its slow progress against the obstinate world?" Well, it is hard to laugh at one's own cause. But the ability to do so occasionally gives one a new energy for the fight. Laughter at one's own failures heartens the spirit for even stronger endeavor. The prizefighter who misses a swing and grins is harder to lick than the one who misses and swears.

The difference between one's ideals and one's feeble accomplishments is so great that at times we all resemble a fat man trying to make a graceful bow to a lady, and slipping on a banana peel instead. At such times laughter at ourselves is the truest self-criticism. But as for "why not?"—well, it is about as easy for the camel to go through the needle's eye.

Ball Players to Be Numbered

By FRANKLIN COLLIER

Meditations of a Wife

By HELEN ROWLAND

EVERY woman needs a husband. If only as an instrument of discipline to keep her from ever growing too self-satisfied.

It takes all of the modern girl's tact and strategy to keep her mother away from the kind of plays that no innocent woman over 40 should see.

Whether a girl appears shocked, delighted or bored at an "unrespectable" play, depends entirely on how long she has been expecting it.

Women and children may have changed, but waiting for a man to discover that he's in love, is still the same old nerve-racking situation test that it was before the jutting party made us so frank and spontaneous.

Many a man goes having a woman.
